6D5N THAILAND & LAOS

Along The Mekong River Tour

Discover the UNSEEN Wonders of 4 Thai provinces & 2 Lao provinces that hug the mighty Mekong River

Stop at 6 cities/towns: Nong Khai – Bueng Kan – Nakhon Phanom – Mukdahan – Savannakhet – Tha Khaek

With Heritage Walk around Savannakhet Old Quarter

Cross The Mekong River at 3 Thai-Lao Friendship Bridges:

Bridge No.1 (Nong Khai with Vientiane)

Bridge No. 2 (Mukdahan with Savannakhet)

Bridge No. 3 (Nakhon Phanom with Tha Khaek)

ITINERARY

DAY 1: Vientiane - Nong Khai - Bueng Kan (L/D)

Arrival by Air Asia 8.20am Vientiane airport. Transfer to Nong Khai town of Thailand (capital of Nong Khai province) by crossing the Mekong River using the Thai-Lao Friendship Bridge No.1 (completed in 1994; Nong Khai - Vientiane connection). Visit the Mekong Riverside Indochina market, packed with goods from Thailand, Laos, Vietnam and China. At the market, take a photo at the Naga signage fronting the Mekong River. Lunch in Nong Khai. Then to Sala Kaew Ku Park, built by a shaman and filled with a bizarre collection of Buddhist, Hindu and mystical sculptures.

Proceed to Bueng Kan, Thailand's latest province (no. 76), carved out from Nong Khai province in 2011. Visit Ahong Silawat temple, which has a replica of the famous Chinnarat Buddha statue. It is located beside a deep whirlpool in the Mekong River, hence the site's nickname, "The Navel of Mekong". A powerful Naga is believed to reside in its depths.

Arrival in Bueng Kan town for dinner. Opposite of town across the Mekong River is the Lao town of Paksan. Overnight in Bueng Kan.

DAY 2: Bueng Kan - Nakhon Phanom (B/L/D)

Transfer to visit 3-Whales Rock (Hin Sam Wan) formation, located on top of Phu Singha Hill, for breathtaking views including ticket for pick-up truck transfer to mountain top). It is so named because the rock formation looks like 3 whales swimming in the sea.

Then to Wat Phu Tok (means “Lonely Mountain Temple”), a forest monastery located up a sheer rock outcrop; accessible by climbing up the network of wooden stairs. Enjoy the 360 degrees panoramic views provided by walkways surrounding the rock outcrop. Established by the late monk, Ajahn Chuan Kunlatchettho, it has a gallery of statues of Ajahn Mun (Ajahn Chuan's master) and his many eminent monk disciples. Nearby a rock boulder is perched on top a small shrine, reminiscent of the Kyaiktiyo Golden Rock shrine of Myanmar.

Continue on to Nakhon Phanom province, following the route along the Mekong River. Just before arriving in Nakhon Phanom city, stop to view the Thai-Lao Friendship Bridge No. 3 (completed in 2011, Nakhon Phanom - Tha Khaek connection).

Arrival in Nakhon Phanom city. Visit the riverside Night Market. Dinner and overnight in Nakhon Phanom.

FOR OCT 12-17 TOUR GROUP: ILLUMINATED BOAT PARADE

OCT 13 will be the night where the ILLUMINATED Boat Parade (“Lai Reua Fai”) will be held; it is a once a year event held in Nakhon Phanom during the Full Moon Night of

End Of Rains Retreat celebration. Enjoy your dinner at your VIP table seated beside the Mekong River and watching the many Illuminated Boats sail by. Each boat’s design is made of many oil lamps hung on a bamboo or wood frame; each oil lamp specially placed so that the beautiful design is alight for your viewing pleasure!

DAY 3: Nakhon Phanom - Mukdahan (B/L/D)

Morning, visit Phra That Nakhon (this principle stupa of the town is a holy place for people born on a Saturday), Giant Naga monument on the riverfront, the unique 2 storey 7-Eleven with rooftop viewing deck, riverfront walking-cycling boardwalk with colourful shop houses, Old Clock Tower (built in 1960 by the local Vietnamese community), Old Governor House (where King Bhumibol stayed a night in 1955; if not open, view from outside) and Saint Anna Church (originally built 1926; the current design is from the 1970s).

Then visit Mekong Underwater World aquarium (to see the rare Giant Mekong Cat Fish and other fishes) and nearby Chakri Dynasty Honour Celebration Building museum (celebrating the royal family of Chakri Dynasty from kings Rama 1 to the present Rama X).

Next, to Ban Na Chok village (community of descendants of migrants from Vietnam), to visit Ho Chi Minh Shrine and House of Ho Chi Minh. Ho Chi Minh stayed here briefly after coming from Bangkok and Udon Thani; he then returned to Vietnam via Laos to start his fight for Viet independence against the French. Lunch in Nakhon Phanom.

Transfer to That Phanom district to visit Phra That Phanom, which according to legend, contains The Buddha's breast bone. It was originally built in the 16th century by the Laotian King Setthathirath of Lanxang, but has seen undergone many rebuilds and renovations. This is the only temple in North East Thailand with Royal 1st Class status. It is a popular pilgrimage destination for those born in the year of the Monkey.

Arrival Mukdahan province. Dinner and check in hotel to overnight in Mukdahan city.

DAY 4: Mukdahan - Savannakhet (B/L/D)

Visit Big Buddha and Wat Roi Phra Phutthabat of Phu Manorom hill (with viewpoint looking across the Mekong and into Laos; and a giant blue Naga statue).

Continue to Phu Pha Thoeb National Park, where you find bizarre shaped rocks, including one resembling a camel. Back to Mukdahan town to visit Indo-China market (located along Mekong River, with the Lao city of Savannakhet opposite) and have lunch at a local restaurant. Then visit Mukdahan Tower, which was built in 1996 and has a height of 65m. Enjoy the view from the observation deck and the exhibits on the ethnic peoples of Mukdahan.

Transfer to Savannakhet city of Laos (capital of Savannakhet province and 2nd largest city of Laos after Vientiane), using Thai-Lao Friendship Bridge No. 2 (completed in 2007, Mukdahan - Savannakhet connection). Enjoy sunset at the riverside looking west at the Mekong River and Mukdahan city of Thailand.

Overnight in Savannakhet.
