The typical Hui-style houses, featuring black roof tiles and white walls, are also well preserved in the Huangling village. During the autumn, the villagers always dry their crops, such as corn and hot pepper, which have become a highlight for the ancient village. In addition, the village has been recently honored with the title "China's Most Beautiful Symbol".

Day 05 15Nov : Huangling Wuyuan – Hangzhou (B/L/D)

Morning visit to Chengcun Village, Shicheng Village & Changxi Village for the charming town of autumn leave.

Wuyuan county in Jiangxi Province is famous for the large pieces of rape flowers. But in fact, it becomes more poetic when autumn comes. In late autumn, Changxi Village is shore with deep and vivid tints. The maple trees growing in the front and back of the village turn to burning red. The tall trees contrast finely with the Mau Tou Wall (Horse Head Wall). The red maple leaves, white walls and black tiles blend into a unity, making a unique sight in this ancient village.

After lunch, drive back to Hangzhou.

Upon arriving Hangzhou, drop by at a section of the West Lake to enjoy the setting sun.

After an early dinner , a nice cruise along the Grand Canal which has been listed under World UNESCO Cultural Heritage Site will definitely broaden your horizon.
